As part of the full-time placement package, You've Got It Maid offers clients the following templates which they can customise to suit their unique situations:

- An employment contract
  - A job description
- A work schedule/plan to assist the domestic worker with daily/weekly/monthly duties
- A performance management tool (which has to be aligned with all three documents mentioned above in order to give a fair evaluation), and finally
- A two month probationary period with the incumbent. Should the incumbent not meet the expectations of the employer as set out in the employment contract, (s)he may request - (1) a replacement domestic worker from You've Got It Maid, or (2) additional training for the incumbent in respect of the underdeveloped skill or (3) a full refund of the placement fee from You've Got It Maid at no additional charge.

You've Got It Maid operates on a personalised quote basis. Kindly accept that the prices listed herein are merely estimates and not final.
